

CONCORDIA LUTHERAN CHURCH

LOST. FOUND. FORMED. FOR SERVICE.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER the EPIPHANY

February 12, 2017

8:00, 9:30, and 11:00 a.m.

“Oh sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvelous things!”

-Psalm 98:1a

AS WE GATHER

Prepare to be changed! Each time God’s people gather for worship, change occurs. As we hear the Gospel proclaimed and celebrate the Lord’s Supper, we are renewed and become strengthened, supported, and fed. God changes us as the Holy Spirit works in and among us. There are changes happening now and changes yet to come. In this “green” season of the Church Year, we have special opportunities to thank God for the continuing growth that He graciously grants us.

↑ INVOCATION

P: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C: who made heaven and earth.

P: I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C: and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

↑ CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P: O Almighty God, merciful Father,

C: I, a poor miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment.

But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

P: Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all you sins in the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

↑ CATECHISM INSTRUCTION – Confession

P: What sins should we confess?

ALL: Before God we should plead guilty of all sins, even those we are not aware of, as we do in the Lord's Prayer; but before the pastor we should confess only those sins which we know and feel in our hearts.

P: Which are these?

All: Consider your place in life according to the Ten Commandments: Are you a father, mother, son, daughter, husband, wife, or worker? Have you been disobedient, unfaithful, or lazy? Have you been hot-tempered, rude, or quarrelsome? Have you hurt someone by your words or deeds? Have you stolen, been negligent, wasted anything, or done any harm?

↑PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

P: Gathered in the name of Jesus, let us turn to God in prayer for the world, for the Church, and for ourselves. For the world, that all who govern use their power to provide for human thriving—caring for the poor, allowing liberty to individuals, and making and establishing just laws; that all those affected by warfare—soldiers, victims of violence, and our enemies—may experience the peace of Christ which surpasses understanding.

O Lord, we pray,

C: shine the light of Your mercy in our hearts and minds.

P: For the Church, that we may put aside all jealousy and strife among us, and instead build on the unity we have in the Lord Jesus Christ; that pastors faithfully preach the Gospel, administer the sacraments, teach the Word, and shepherd the flocks entrusted to their care; that teachers in our Lutheran schools faithfully instruct in the way of the Lord the children under their care; that our lives may show forth reconciliation, rather than hatred, so that the world may be drawn to the mercy of God in Jesus.

O Lord, we pray,

C: shine the light of Your mercy in our hearts and minds.

P: For ourselves, that those among us who are suffering—the sick, hospitalized, convalescing, undergoing tests, or dying—may see Your mercy in the midst of whatever they face; [we especially remember today _____;] that marriages and families of our congregation may look to You in times of trouble and times of joy; that those who travel may depart and arrive safely; that whatever we plan and do as a congregation may shine forth to the world with the brightness of the resurrection of Jesus; that those among us who mourn [especially _____] may be comforted by the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting; that we remember with thankfulness the lives of those who have gone before us in the faith and have died; bring us with them to that day when all crying, suffering, and pain will be no more and death will be vanquished forever. O Lord, we pray,

C: shine the light of Your mercy in our hearts and minds.

[Additional prayers may be offered here.]

P: Hear our prayer, Lord God, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave His life and was raised that we might live anew.

C: Amen.

COMMUNION INVITATION

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that they may show forth His death until He comes.

Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, are unclear on what all this means, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the Sacrament, are encouraged to seek guidance from the pastor.
