Yard Sale Thank you to everyone who donated items for the yard sale. A few of the items turned out to be things we could use here at the church so didn't quite make it onto the sale tables. Need Ice Anyone? If you are having a picnic or party and will need ice, please feel free to fill a cooler from the ice machine in the OC kitchen. It fills up with ice which must be periodically emptied to keep the ice fresh. This helps keep us from wasting all that ice.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

♦ Church Library A number of new books came in through the yard sale that will go into the library. The list will be published as soon as the books are checked in by the librarian.

♦ Open Arms Teachers, aides and family members continued to work on getting the classrooms back in order this past week. A glance in the rooms will show that they still have much to do and will likely be there off and on throughout the summer preparing for the start of school September 5th.

♦ Sunday School Class will continue through the summer with a series of lessons on the Ten Commandments for school-age children. The older children into the teens will be called on to assist. We will also be asking for some volunteer teachers from time to time to help with the various activities. Lesson materials will be provided. There will be a sign-up sheet on the Education bulletin board.

♦ Flower Beds Little by little the flower beds are showing the results of some care, but there are still areas needing attention. See Pete or Karen Kreymborg if you would like to help in keeping our campus looking good—they can direct you to the areas needing attention.

♦ Did You Know? John Mullican has been asked to design and construct the World War 11 Memorial Monument sponsored by Williamsport American Legion Post 202. Check John's Facebook page for pictures of him working on the bronze mural for the monument. Speaking of art and artists, Dick Amt and John Mullican both won multiple awards at the Franklin County Alliance's annual Art Show which was held in Chambersburg this past week.

♦ Christian Music Night Mark your calendars for Saturday August 26th, the date for an evening of music, food, fellowship, and fun for the whole family sponsored by the Concordia Praise Team. The evening will feature an open-mic time for all musical performers. Contacts are Fred Tichnell or Tom O'Farrell
